

The Language Pyramid

Each of the levels of the pyramid are the foundation for the next.
A child needs a firm basis in a lower level in order to develop their skills appropriately in the next level.

Often we need to target the development of those lower levels e.g. attention and listening, or understanding, before working directly on using language or speech sounds.

