

UPDATE regarding BHT Macmillan Dietetic Services

We are currently running telephone clinics across both adult outpatient and community Macmillan dietetic services.

Please refer to the information in the link here and speak to your nurse specialist or doctor about referring into our services should you need further support and advice.

CANCER SUPPORT

Cancer Education Information & Support Service

01296 316954

The Cancer Education, Information & Support Service at Stoke Mandeville Hospital and Wycombe Hospital has been developed to ensure people affected by cancer have access to good quality, comprehensive & appropriate information and support.

Macmillan Citizens' Advice Outreach Adviser at Bucks Healthcare Trust (BHT)

01908 545160 (voicemail)

07976 021 635

If you are a cancer patient with BHT you, your family members or carer can get advice on any financial difficulties you may be facing. Can offer advice and support on allowances, employment, relationship breakdown, debt, housing consumer issues and immigration.

Maggie's Centre, Churchill Hospital, Oxford

01865 751882

www.maggies.org/our-centres/maggies-oxford/

Email: enquiries@maggies.org

Maggie's provides free practical, emotional and social support to people with cancer and their family and friends. We're here to support you now everyone's at home; for help, advice or just a chat.

Macmillan Cancer Support

0808 808 00 00

Looking after your health and wellbeing at home (including nutrition and diet; physical activity; and emotional well-being)

<https://www.macmillan.org.uk/coronavirus/>